NO PISTOLS IN HENRICO

Judge Scott Warns Negroes Against "Toting" Concealed Weapons.

After a session of the Henrico Circuit Court lasting eight long hours in the case of Richard Gaskins, who was charged with shooting Pernell Pleasants, the jury found the man guilty and sentenced him to a term of four years in the penitentiary. The entire morning was taken up with the examination of witnesses which were for the most part for the prosecution. In the afternoon Commonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg addressed the jury, He dwelt at length concerning the lawlessdwelt at length concerning the account of the colored citizens of Henrico county. The Commonwealth has a clear case against the negro. The crime was committed in March and grow out of a dispute over a game of "craps."

The jury was out for nearly two hours and after calling upon the court for instructions they deliberated for about thirty minutes and returned with their verdect

Judge Scott took advantage of the op-portunity of addressing the prisoner for the benefit of the large number of ne-groes present at the trial. The judge said:

I am only too glad that the gentlemen "I am only too glad that the gentlemen of the jury have seen it fit to pronounce the prisoner guilty. There is too much 'razor carrying' and 'pistol toting' going on among the negroes of Henrico county, and I want it understood that any one who is brought before me charged with shooting or cutting, will get the full extent of the law."
